

ONLINE SPORTS BETTING

DON'T GAMBLE WITH YOUR FUTURE

WHO IS BETTING?

- Age: Young adults (21-34) make up the largest group of online sports bettors.
- Gender: While most sports bettors are men, increasing numbers of women are participating, too.
- Sports fans: Avid sports fans are more likely to engage in online betting.

WHY IS IT A PROBLEM?

Addiction

The ease of access to betting can lead to compulsive behavior.

Integrity of sports

Increased betting activity raises concerns about match-fixing and corruption in sports.

Youth exposure

Young people are increasingly exposed to betting culture.

Data privacy

Online betting platforms collect vast amounts of personal and financial data.

CONSEQUENCES

1. Financial ruin: Large betting losses can lead to debt and financial instability.
2. Mental health issues: Anxiety, depression, and stress often accompany problem gambling.
3. Relationship strain: Betting addiction can damage personal and professional relationships.

SYMPTOMS OF A GAMBLING ADDICTION

- Preoccupation: Constantly thinking about betting or planning bets.
- Escalation: Needing to bet more money to get the same thrill.
- Lying: Hiding betting activities from friends and family.
- Failed attempts: Inability to cease or control betting despite wanting to.
- Withdrawal: Feeling restless or irritable when trying to cut down on betting.

SIGNS OF A PROBLEM

- Borrowing: Taking loans or using savings to fund betting.
- Neglect: Ignoring work, family, or personal responsibilities due to betting.
- Loss chasing: Trying to recoup losses by placing more bets.
- Jeopardizing opportunities: Risking one's job, education, or relationships for betting.
- Reliance on others: Seeking financial bailouts due to betting losses.

GETTING HELP

1. Professional counseling: Seek help from therapists who specialize in gambling addiction.
2. Block betting sites: Most online betting platforms have tools that let you limit or block your access.
3. Support groups: Encourage family members to join support groups like Gam-Anon for guidance and understanding.
4. Educate yourself: Learn about the psychology of gambling addiction.

THE ODDS ARE NOT IN YOUR FAVOR!